Health Education focuses on critical issues, while fostering a desire for accurate information and responsible decision making. This course will expose students to a combination of classroom and activity-based learning experiences to increase their awareness and health behaviors. Personal and social skills will be developed to enhance a healthy lifestyle.

You must bring the following to class every day.

- Folder
- Notebook
- Pencil/Pen
- You must be wearing your ID to class everyday

- You will take a quarterly at the end of the marking period that will count for 15% of your grade. Throughout the course you will be given all of the information that will be given on the quarterly.

This area will count for the largest percentage of your grade. You will be given a number of tests and projects to be completed during the marking period.

- Your participation in class will be paramount to you gaining the knowledge necessary in 9th grade health. During class discussion you need to be appropriate and engaged in order to get full credit. The journal or notebook you keep for writing can stay in the classroom in your assigned spot and will be checked and graded at the end of each week. Please make sure that if you miss a day of school you make up the journal entry or do now.

This will be a combination of any homework given, classwork given to be handed in and any work given by a sub

- Come in quietly and sit in your assigned seat and start the Do Now right away.
 - Respect yourself and others.
 - Phones are not allowed in class unless given special permission by the teacher
 - When the teacher is talking students are not.
 - Come to class prepared with a pen/pencil, journal/notebook, and any homework or projects that are due.
 - If a student should miss a class on the day an assignment is due, they will be responsible for it on the next day they are in class in order to receive full credit. They are also responsible for any notes, handouts, and/or assignments for which they missed.
 - No food is permitted in the classroom.
 - RESPECT!! This is the most important expectation in the classroom. I expect EVERYONE to respect themselves, others and the opinions of others, and property at all times.
 - Make sure your area is clean when leaving and push in your chair.
